

Beaver Lake Cree Nation reservation, but students were accepted from all over Alberta and Saskatchewan.

The next part of the visualization shows an estimation of where students came from and how far they travelled.
Scroll on to explore.

The Blue Quills Residential School was part of a vast network of Aboriginal residential schools located all across Canada. It is estimated that 150 000 children attended 130 schools between 1876 and 1996.

In the next part of the visualization, one orange dot represents one student, showing the schools they attended, nationwide, and the reservations they left behind.
